

HKIAP Practical Pathology Update 2011
Neuropathology
Co-organized with Hong Kong College of Pathologists (HKCPath)

Dear Members of the HKIAP, members and fellows of the HKCPath,

The HKIAP is delighted to announce the upcoming practical pathology update 2011 on neuropathology. The details are as follows:

Date: 8th January, 2011.

Time: See attached time table.

Speaker: Dr Gregory N. Fuller, Department of Neuropathology, University of Texas, MD Anderson Cancer Center.

Venue: Postgraduate Education Center, Prince of Wales Hospital, Shatin.

The program is free to members of the HKIAP, members and fellows of the HKCPath, although registration is required. Please fax/email the application form below to our Meeting secretariat (Fax: 26376274, email: HKIAPsecretariat@gmail.com). To further maximize the benefit of the members of both Societies, the HKIAP Council had an agreement with the Chinese University of Hong Kong that registrants of our meeting will be able to attend lectures of the Brain 2011 seminar, which will also be taking place on the same day in the Postgraduate Education center. No further registration fee is required! For details of the programmes of the Brain 2011 seminar as well as the HKIAP Practical Pathology Update, please see the attached time table. Tea break and lunch boxes are included.
